

Youth Take Charge Program - Participant Survey

You recently participated in a project funded by the Youth Take Charge Program at the Department of Canadian Heritage and are asked to complete a post-participation questionnaire. The Youth Take Charge Program (YTC) aims to strengthen youth attachment to Canada through engagement. The data collected will be used by Canadian Heritage to evaluate the impacts of the Youth Take Charge Program and improve the program for future participants. The questions are related to age and other demographic data, as well as respondents' appreciation of the projects in which they participated. Your participation is voluntary and the estimated time to complete the questionnaire is 5 minutes.

Privacy Notice

The collection of personal information is authorized by Subsection 5(a) of the Department of Canadian Heritage Act and is required to conduct the survey for the Youth Take Charge Program, which aims to evaluate program effectiveness and produce statistical reports on results. Collection and use of this personal information are in accordance with the Privacy Act. The information collected will be used for analysis, statistical and reporting purposes. The personal information collected is described in Personal Information Bank PSU 942 – Evaluation. Your participation is voluntary, and no administrative consequences will result from your refusal to provide this information. Under the Privacy Act you have the right of access to, and correction of, your personal information. To exercise either of these rights, contact Canadian Heritage's ATIP Coordinator by email at aiprp-atip@pch.gc.ca. If you are not satisfied with Canadian Heritage's response to your privacy concern, you may wish to contact the Office of the Privacy Commissioner of Canada by telephone at 1-800-282-1376.
